

Dear Participant:

You are receiving the attached notification as the result of a regulation passed by the Department of Labor (DOL) in October 2010. This participant fee disclosure regulation, referred to by the DOL as 404(a), requires plan sponsors of participant-directed ERISA plans to make specific disclosures about plan fees and investments to participants, beneficiaries and employees eligible but not yet participating in their retirement plan. The regulation requires this disclosure to be made on an annual basis.

No action is required on your part – this document is being sent to you for informational purposes only. You will receive an updated document on an annual basis.

To assist you with understanding the disclosure document, a reference guide titled: “Understanding your Retirement Plan and the Overview of Plan Investment Options and Fees” is available at the following address: www.pruential.com/404aUserGuide.

Please refer to Part IV of the attached document for information on who to call with questions.

SMART Local Union No. 36 401(k) Plan
PLAN 300311
OVERVIEW OF PLAN INVESTMENT OPTIONS AND FEES
AS OF: December 31, 2017

As a participant in the above referenced plan, you have the right to direct how your contributions to the Plan will be invested. This overview of the Plan's investment options is an important starting point for helping you to evaluate which plan investments might be best for you. This document is for informational purposes only; no action is necessary.

Getting Started - As you review your investment choices, you should think about your lifetime income needs at retirement, your long-term investment goals, and tolerance for risk. It is important to understand that all investments carry some level of risk and most investments will fluctuate in value as market conditions change. Therefore you should consider the benefits of a well-balanced and diversified portfolio.

This document enables you to compare investment performance and investment-related expenses and fees for each of the Plan's investment options. Existing participants (those with an account in the retirement plan) can log into their accounts at www.prudential.com/online/retirement (eligible non-participants, or those who have not yet enrolled in the plan, can go to www.prudential.com/planning) for access to additional information about each investment option—including the most recent performance information—and a glossary of investment-related terms.

What you should know about investment performance - Investment performance is the investment's return to investors after expenses are deducted. This overview shows the average annual total return for each investment at 1, 5 and 10 year intervals or since the inception of the investment. For each investment with a variable return, the overview also provides a benchmark which enables you to compare the performance of the investment with a broad based securities market index. Broad based securities market indices may not always correlate well to an individual investment option. For example, an employer stock investment option is not diversified and is not managed to perform similarly to a benchmark, and therefore its performance should be expected to deviate from the benchmark performance. Performance for investment options that invest in a blend of both stocks and bonds (e.g. lifestyle funds or balanced funds) may also be expected to deviate from the benchmark performance. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance, but it may help you assess an investment's volatility over time.

What you should know about investment fees and expenses – As with any business, there are costs associated with operating all investment options. Investment options typically pay their operating expenses, including expenses for investment management and distribution fees, out of assets of the investment. To help you compare fees and expenses, the overview includes each investment's total annual operating expense expressed as a percentage of the investment's net assets, but also as a dollar cost for each $1,000 invested. Some investments have additional fees that may be charged directly to the investor, such as sales charges (load), purchase fees, redemption fees and exchange fees. These fees, if applicable, will be described in the column titled Additional Fees, Restrictions, and Notes.

The cumulative effect of investment fees and expenses can substantially reduce the return on investments and, therefore, your retirement savings. However, fees and expenses are only two of many factors to consider when deciding what investment is appropriate for you. For additional information concerning the long-term effect of fees and expenses, visit the U.S. Department of Labor's Web site at http://www.dol.gov/ebsa/publications/401k\_employee.html.

Overview of the Disclosure Document - Part I of this overview includes those investment options with variable rates of return – investments that do not provide a specific rate of return for investors. Part II includes investment options with fixed rates of return – investments that provide a specific rate of return for investors. Part III includes annuity options and other guaranteed lifetime income options that have guaranteed benefit features that help ensure your retirement savings lasts a lifetime. Part IV explains who you can contact for questions and paper copies of investment-related information. Part V contains information about administrative or recordkeeping fees associated with your plan.

Annuities are insurance contracts that allow you to receive a guaranteed stream of payments at regular intervals, usually beginning when you retire and lasting for your entire life. Other Guaranteed Lifetime Income Options include insurance contracts that allow you to receive a guaranteed minimum withdrawal benefit amount each year beginning when you lock in and lasting for the rest of your life. These investment products are issued by insurance companies. Guarantees of an insurance company are subject to its long-term financial strength and claims-paying ability.
